Meeting of Newton Camp at Ashland.

An Address. ASHLAND, October 6.-(Special.)-Last night in the Town Council chamber W. B. Newton Camp, Confederate Veterans, welcomed Colonel Thomas C. Morton, B. Newton Camp, Confederate Veterans, welcomed Colonel Thomas C. Morton, inspector-general of the Virginia Grand Camp. Colonel Richard Irby, commander of the camp, presided and called the camp to order. The visitor offered a very appropriate and fervent prayer, and afterwards made an address of forty minutes to the meeting. In the course of his remarks he spoke of what was due the veterans, and said that the State was doing a noble part by them. He urged the camp to assist in erecting the monument to President Jefferson Davis, and said that it was the duty of the South to erect a monument to the southern women. In speaking of the old negroes of Virginia, he declared that he considered that they were due a debt of gratitude, and that it would be a graceful thing to see a monument erected to the memory of those who worked in the trenches and threw up the breastworks. His idea was that the monument should have the figure of a one "gallus" negro upon it. He devoted some time to the history question, and was very forcible in his remarks. He particularly requested the members of the camp to see their representatives in the next General Assembly and have them do whatever was in their power to forward the recommendation of the Grand Camp in regard to placing true histories in the hands of the Virginia youth. The address was listened to with marked attention, and the speaker was liberally applauded.

The camp elected Vice-Commander Dr. H. C. Scott as delegate to the Urand plauded.

The camp elected Vice-Commander Dr. H. C. Scott as delegate to the Grand Camp, which meets in Richmond on October 20th, and Colonel H. W. Wingfield alternate. Mrs. John Page, wife of Mayor John Page, was elected lady sponsor for the occasion, and she will be requested to appoint her maid of honor. Mrs. H. C. Scott is the sponsor of the camp, and represents it in the Museum and other bodies. Colonel Irby, the commander, will also go to the meeting in Richmond, his office entitling him to a seat in the council of the body.

Newton Camp will meet again on Saturday, October 18th, in the same place.

DR. CUNNINGHAM'S CONDITION.

Material Change-Very Little

since the last convulsion, which he had yesterday afternoon, has he been conscious or spoken a word. The attendants at his bedside managed to get him to take a little nourishment this afternoon, and for the greater part of the day he has been composed. Notwithstanding this, he is critically ill, and the doctors do not hold out much hope for his recovery. The people of Farmville are deeply sensible of the great affliction which has so suddenly come upon Dr. Cunningham, and feel that in the event of his death the town would sustain an almost irreparable loss. Dr. Cunningham has been ever since he came to this place a foremost spirit in helping every good work and enterprise, and no man in the community would be more missed.

Ex-Governor McKinney returned home to-day from a brief visit to Richmond. It was the first time that he had been from home for more than twelve months.

THE SEABOARD CONTROVERSY.

The Taking of Depositions Adjourn ed-The Questions at Issue. NORFOLK, VA., October 6 .- (Special.)-

By agreement of counsel, the taking of depositions in the case of Thomas F.

By agreement of counsel, the taking of depositions in the case of Thomas F. Ryan against the Seaboard and Roanoke railway has been adjourned to October 13th. These depositions give promise of developing some spicy information. There is a considerable degree of animosity between the parties to the controversy, and the charges made in the bill and complaint are not calculated to allay the fill-feeling, but to increase it.

The intent of the depositions to be taken is to secure a permanent injunction against the present management of the Seaboard Air-Line, and to perpetuate the injunction granted by Judge Simonion, of the United States Circuit Court, sent out by Thomas F. Ryan, to restrain the R. C. Hoffman party from operating the road.

The depositions will be taken before Mr. J. Alston Cabell, of Richmond, in the office of John H. Sharp, secretary of the company. Those summoned as witnesses to give evidence to sustain the injunction are W. W. Chamberlain, C. W. Grandy, L. R. Watts, Louis McLean, J. Alfred Walton, and other officers of the road. The attorneys in the case are: For the plaintiff or Ryan party—Mr. Henry Crawford, of New York, and D. Lawrence Groner, of Norfolk. The attorneys for the road, or Hoffman interest, are Watts and Haiton, Portsmouth; Sharp & Hughes, Norfolk, and Judge W. A. Fisher, of Baltimore.

Till this meeting shall have occurred

Hope of Recovery.

PARMVILLE, VA., October 6.—(Speial.)—There has been no material change oday in the condition of Dr. John A.
Canningham, who was taken suddenly with meningitis yesterday. The attending the a shade more favorable, still the expendence, the Ryan party to show that the property is being mismanaged and depreciated by the present management, and the Hoffman party to show that the charges are not made in the interest of the stockholders, are not true, and are intended only to put the outs in.

WAS DEVOTED TO MASONRY. Captain Babcock, whose memory the Masons of Virginia will honor to-day, was devoted to Masonry. He was the founder and the most liberal patron of the Masonic Home, but was noted for his works of charity in almost all directions. rections. He was born near Princeton, N. J., in 1855. At the age of 13 he went to New York, and was apprenticed to a bank-note printer.

He was employed by the Confederate Government printing establishment, and also served in the army as captain under Mosby. After the war he became thoroughly identified with Richmond. REPUBLICAN DELEGATES RETURN.

Speak in Satisfactory Terms of Their Convention-What Col. Brady Says. The delegates from Richmond to the Lamb Republican convention held in Lynchburg have returned home, fired with enthusiasm over the apparent suecess of the meeting. They believe that the machinations of the Brady-Agnew faction will not deter the rank and file of the Republicans from wheeling into line and putting up a strong and vigorous line and putting up a strong and vigorous fight at the forthcoming election.

The powers that be in Republican politics in Virginia deride the results of the convention and the hopes of its votaries. Colonel Brady summed it up yesterday afternoon in an interview with a Dispatch reporter. He said:

"It is evident that Lamb's and Jake Vest's meeting at Lynchurg was full."

Yost's meeting at Lynchburg was run by the disgruntled office-seekers. As a rebuke to the national administration, they nominated a disappointed office-seeker for Governor. No man in the whole country has haunted the Executive mansion for office during President Me-Kinley's administration more than Kinley's administration more than "Pat." McCaull.

"Mr. Yost participated in the meeting of the State Committee on August 18th last at Lynchburg, when Lamb was de-posed as State chairman, and although the congressman was not able to conposed as State chairman, and although the congressman was not able to control more than a fraction of one vote, and that by proxy, in the regular organization of his party, he is, according to all party usage, fairly bound by the action of the State Committee. News of the City-Hall Courts. In the Law and Equity Court yesterday

In the Law and Equity Court yesterday morning a verdict was rendered in the case of Dellia Watkins against the Metropolitan Life-Insurance Company for $168. William Devine received thirty days and 1 cent fine for assault upon W. R. Ford in the Hustings Court.

Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to the following-named persons: Jesse Brook Clarke and Rebecca Johnson; William H. Sadler and Loulie Evans; Charles L. Shackelford and Mary Eleanor Evans; E. J. Cussons and Kate D. Johnson; W. H. Maxwell and Virginia Howard.

McCabe's Athletic Association. At a meeting of McCabe's University School Athletic Association yesterday Professor B. W. N. Bagot was elected president; Dr. C. D. Fishburne, vice-president; Mr. J. P. Madison, secretary and treasurer, Mr. Howard Holland, of last year's team, was elected captain for 1898. Mr. Iran C. Mayer, manager of the team of 1897, was re-elected.

Twitchell Case Again Postponed.

The case of Carlos A. Twitchell, the white man charged with feloniously shooting Paul Davis, a negro youth who assaulted his daughter, has again been postponed. It was called in the Hustings Court yesterday, and its trial was continued until the 27th instant, on the motion of the accused. Twitchell asked for a brief continuance. He said that he had been unable to make arrangements with Captain George D. Wise, who had heretofore acted as his counsel.

"Can't you come to terms with Captain Wise before this term ends?" the Judge asked. Twitchell Case Again Postponed.

sir, he can't," said Captain Wise.

"No, sir, he can't," said Captain wise.
"He can't make any terms with me."
Judge Witt gave Twitchell until the 27th of October, and said that the case would be called that day.
The case of James T. Kitchen, charged with entering the office of the Home Brewing Company and taking a sum of money, was also postponed to the 20th instant.

Virginia Historical Society.

At the first regular meeting of the Geographical and Historical Society Tuesday evening, officers for the present session were elected as follows: President, Professor S. C. Mitchell (re-elected); Vice-President, Mr. John J. Hurt, of Powhatan; Secretary, Mr. A. C. Harlowe, of Charlottesville; Treasurer, Mr. Allan D. Jones, of Newport News; Reporters—Mr. Josiah Moses, of Richmond; Mr. R. S. Garnett, of Essex county, and Mr. Wortley F. Rudd, of Skinquarter, Va.

The work for the year will be given largely to the thorough study of Virginia's geography and history.

The Executive Committee will present at the next meeting a full programme of this work, and, too, the society will have the pleasure of hearing the last of a series of papers on a phase of the subject studied last year—"England in Gladstone's Time."

Justice John's Visitors. There were not many callers upon Justice John yesterday morning; but, come few or many, they always are received with greatest cordiality, and sent away fully setting.

Edna Meekins (colored) was charged with assaulting and beating Arthur Jackson, and was fined $2.50.

The case of Julia Meekins (colored), charged with obtaining clothing from Mrs. Jennie Bowers under false pretences, was continued until the 18th.

In the case of Sam White (colored), charged with creating a disturbance in the saloon of James Bahen, Jr., the accused was fined $5 and costs. Mr, Bahen was also up for striking White with a hatchet, and was fined $2.50.

The case of Edwin Levy, charged with striking J. E. Reynolds with a brick, was continued until October 7th.

His Papers Were Irregular.

Police-Sergeant J. M. Seay, of Lynchburg, was in Richmond yesterday, and during his stay here he called on Governor O'Ferrall to procure extradition papers for Jim Wright, a noted negro carbreaker, who is wanted in Lynchburg for breaking into cars of the Norfolk and Western railroad about the middle of September, and carrying off a large amount of dry-goods, shoes, etc. The negro is under arrest in Willimantic, Conn. Owing to an irregularity in the papers brought by the Sergeant from Lynchburg, the Governor declined to issue the requisition papers, and Sergeant Seay returned to Lynchburg in the afternoon.
